Dear Nick,

I am writing to you regarding the Vice-Chair of Bassetlaw Liberal Democrats, Mr Leon Duveen.

Mr Duveen, as well as being the Vice-Chair of Bassetlaw Liberal Democrats and a regular election candidate, has set up a group called 'Bassetlaw against fracking' which he is now running (please see the enclosed copy of an email from Mr Duveen sent today organising the next meeting of the group).

Mr Duveen has also set up a public facebook page for the group and invited people to join. On this group there have been several grossly offensive comments made about individuals, the police, and politicians. I have enclosed as an example one cartoon of the Prime Minister David Cameron which you will find particularly offensive.

I should stress that this is a public group, accessible by anyone, and promoted by Mr Duveen. I am writing to you today to request that you act to remove Mr Duveen from his position as Vice-Chair of Bassetlaw Liberal Democrats and future election candidate, and urge him as his Party Leader to remove the offensive comments.

Yours sincerely,

John Mann MP
